Term-based, Leased and/or Subscription-based Software

If your software license is Term-based, Leased, or Subscription-based, please wait until your service contract start date to activate your serial number(s). Your license term period and any applicable grace period become effective on the contract start date.

- If activated early, you may need to Rehost and Reactivate after the valid contract start date to get the appropriate term period and any applicable grace period on your activation(s). This applies to both new and renewal orders for Term-based, leased and/or Subscription-based software, even if you receive new serialization upon renewal.
